FOR RELEASE at will

When the CHILDREN'S FAIR opens at The Cleveland Museum of Art on June 18 at 11:00 a.m. varied children's theatre programs will be presented. The Music school Settlement will offer THE EMPEROR'S NEW CLOTHES, a favorite of children. One act from HEIDI will be produced by The Playhouse Children's Theatre. BLUE BONNETS, a beautiful American Indian legend, will be done by the Karamu Children's Theatre. NOAH AND THE FLOATING ZOO will be performed by members of Cain Park Youtheatre, and the Cleveland Institute of Music students will give a musical program. There will also be a performance by the Junior League Puppeteers.

The Parmadale Band, Higbee Hi-Fi Combo and Willoughby High School Band will each take their turn in the bandstand during the FAIR'S two gala days.

A Victorian Village of the 19th century will be the setting for the FAIR which is sponsored by the Junior Council of the Museum to benefit the Education Department of the Museum. The performances will be held in the Children's Theatre. Other features of the FAIR are: a raffle on Saturday, door prizes on Sunday, refreshments, fortune telling, carousel, pony rides, covered wagon and Model T fire engine, miniature zoo, make up booth, photography booth and other attractions.

Admission is 25¢ for children, 50¢ for adults. On Father's Day, June 19 fathers will be admitted free accompanied by children. Everyone is welcome.
